Information for Overnight Delegates

Check-out for overnight delegates is at 12:00 PM EST on March 23, 2025. Delegates should store their luggage with the hotel concierge before this point. There will also be an area on the Mezzanine floor for delegates to store luggage.

Delegate Code of Conduct

Missed Committee Sessions

If you will be missing a committee session for any reason, you should inform a member of your dias. If you fail to do so, your chaperone teacher/head delegate (if available) will be contacted, as well as your emergency contact. This is done for safety purposes.

Behavioral Expectations

Delegates are expected to strictly abide by all applicable laws. Illegal activity includes but is not limited to:

1. Alcohol/substance use as a minor
2. Theft
3. Sexual harassment/assault
4. Hate speech
5. Physical assault
6. Possession of firearms or other weaponry

Any and all illegal activity breaching regional, provincial, or national law will be reported to the relevant authorities and result in immediate expulsion from the conference. If you would like to report any of these activities, please contact a member of conference staff as soon as possible. Conference staff will be available at the Information Desk located on the Mezzanine floor during all conference hours.

To ensure an enjoyable experience for all, delegates should also abide by the following guidelines:

1. Refrain from interfering with the stay of other guests or staff at The Sheraton (i.e. being excessively loud)
2. Make efforts to include others in discussions, blocs, and papers
3. Treat everyone with kindness and respect
4. Arrive on time to each committee session
5. Follow all conference policies

Delegate Reporting

During the conference, delegates will be able to contact the equity team through an online equity reporting form, as well as by going to the check-in desk located on the Mezzanine floor. If submitting the online form, delegates will have the option to remain anonymous. Delegates may be contacted via phone or email for further information if needed.

Online Reporting form

Please find the online reporting form on our website at www.tmun.ca/equity

Penalties

If a delegate is found violating the Delegate Code of Conduct, the action taken against them will depend on the intent of the violation and the severity of the violation. If any delegate is found to be partaking in illegal activities, local authorities will be contacted. Delegates in delegations will also have their chaperone teachers contacted. TMUN reserves the right to remove any offending delegates from the conference or take further action.

Responsibility and Liability

Toronto Model United Nations is not liable for any crime which may occur before, during, or after the conference. Delegates are expected to be responsible for themselves.

Lost and Found

All lost items will be brought to the Delegate Assistance Desk. Any lost items uncollected by 6:00 PM on March 24th will be held by TMUN for thirty days after the conference, and delegates will be responsible for collecting/paying for the shipping of lost items after this point.

Award Policy
